GALICIAN TRAITORS SIGNAL RUSSIANS: 1800 ARRESTED

Berlin Accuses Czar's Forces of Cruelty in Campaign.

BERLIN (by wireless to Sayville, L. I.), ept. 17. The War Office announced today that it had received advices from Vienna showing that 1800 Gallelan traitors had been arrested and taken to Grats in Styria, where they are now held awaiting sentence. They are reported to have confessed and to have admitted that they were paid by Russian agents to signal the positions of the Austrian armies.

In support of its charges of alleged cruelties by the Russians the War Office declares that Lieutenant Tiedemann, of the Fifth Prussian cuirassiers, found 21 German recruits lving beloless on the highway. They had been surprised at a point in East Prussis the day before by Cossacks who had in some cases severed hands at the wrist, in others the feet below the knee, and in still others had cut off ears and noses. One Russian officer who was captured had cut off a woman's finger with a valuable ring on it and it was found in his pocket.

ST. MARTIN'S, Pa., Sept. 17 .- Although the condition all around could not possibly have been more favorable, for some Jacobs was relieved in the fourth by reason or other the early starters in the qualifying round of the annual invitation thereafter, with the exception of the tournament of the Philadelphia Cricket Club here teday turned in very poor > scores. Playing wonderful golf, Walter H. Reynolds, of the Aronimink Country Club, turned in a score of 75, a score that ing with clockwork precision, he never made a mistake all the way round, his score for the first nine holes being 37 and for the last nine, 38. He played par gelf on the first, fifth, sixth, seventh, eleventh,

> He was one under for the second, third and eighth holes. On the short holes, nine, ten and sixteen only was he above par; his card was as follows:

Out 434 544 535-37 In 454 445 444-38-75 One remarkable feature of the tourna-ment so far is the success of the Aronimink representatives. In addition Raynolds, Cecil B. Calvert, George G. Klauder, G. W. Statzell, Spencer D. Wright and Norman H. Maxwell are practically certain to be in the first six-
